Extra credit or questions for families with older kids:

- Do you really know everybody on your friends list?
- Do you ever get messages from strangers? How do you handle them?
- Do you know anyone who's gone to meet someone offline they'd been talking to online?
- Are people in your group of friends ever mean to each other online or on phones? What do they say? Have they ever been mean to you? Would you tell me if they were?
- Sometimes kids take nude or sexy photos and send them to others. Has that ever happened at your school?
